MISS SINNOTT WINS

She Received Nearly Five Thousand Votes

How a Voting Last Night Compares R to D—Other Notes.

The contest for queen of the annual festival last night, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott was chosen queen by a vote of 4,780. Miss Schwab came next with 1,584 votes, and Miss Fannie Johnson third with 821. The total vote cast was found over three thousand of which were cast last night.

The cards of honor for the queen, appointed by the king, will be found mounted in a proclamation etc., where.

A committee from Utica reported to the carnival committee at its meeting last night that 75 men had come to join the drill. They hope to have equipments here Monday and begin drill.

The flags for the carnival are expected to arrive this afternoon from S. Louis.

A band has been organized here, and a subscription started among the residents for the maintenance of it. It is thought that it will be a success.

Tuesday morning the program for the two days will be published.

The key to be presented by the mayor to the king has been constructed and measures four feet in length. It was made of iron and by Mr. Voller, the court street tinsmith, and is a very neat piece of workmanship. It is in charge of Mr. Louis Langford.

The printers who are to form the band in the procession are drilling nightly and will be in fine shape by the time of their parade.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again Monday night, and a special request is made that all the members of the various committees be entered into its books.

SERGEANT BLIGHT COMING.

Sergeant Blight is expected Monday from Louisville to enlist recruits for the regular army. It is expected that he will make a good haul this time, as there are now 11 or 12 names of those who have applied to Dr. Brooks for examination.

CONNECTED WITH SEWERS.

The work of connecting the county jail with the city sewers has been completed and Mr. J. E. Conson was today allowed $500 in the county court.

WINS HIS SUIT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—In the supreme court the suit of Rev. D. U. Potter against the Baptist Missions society for $10,000 damages resulted in a verdict of $8,000 in favor of Dr. Potter. He was formerly pastor of the Tabernacle church, from which he was deposed by force March 3, 1867. He alleged he was possessed by a leprosy. Dr. D. Rockwell inspired the motion of the Baptist Missions society.

From Glenoe the British Have Chased the Boers, Driving Them Eastward

THE LOSSES OF THE BATTLE

More Soldiers Leave London For the Seat of War Awakened by Much Patriotism.

THE LATEST FROM SEAT OF WAR

LADYSMITH, Oct. 21.—English cavalry detachments are still chasing the Boers to the eastward.

GLENCOE, Oct. 21.—The British commander includes Col. Charles Rossiter and Adair, all severely wounded, and also Majors Hamerly and Davidson of the Dublin fusiliers who led the charge. A captain and a lieutenant were killed and two captured and one lieutenant injured. Of the Royal Irish fusiliers a captain and a lieutenant were killed and a captain and three lieutenants were wounded. Of the King's Royal rifles a lieutenant, colonel, a captain and three lieutenants were killed and a major and two captains and three lieutenants wounded. Of the Eighteenth Hussars three lieutenants were wounded and one killed.

LODNON, Oct. 21.—The brigade guards left London this morning for the Transvaal amid scenes of wild enthusiasm. Today is the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar and furnishes a convenient outlet for patriotic feelings. The Nelson's column in Trafalgar square is decorated and the whole city is bright with flags.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 21.—A train has arrived at Jaegersfontein to the Free State, with seventy wounded fighters on board.

A band has been organized here, and a subscription started among the residents for the maintenance of it. It is thought that it will be a success.

Tuesday morning the program for the two days will be published.

The key to be presented by the mayor to the king has been constructed and measures four feet in length. It was made of iron and by Mr. Voller, the court street tinsmith, and is a very neat piece of workmanship. It is in charge of Mr. Louis Langford.

The printers who are to form the band in the procession are drilling nightly and will be in fine shape by the time of their parade.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again Monday night, and a special request is made that all the members of the various committees be entered into its books.

GLENCOE, Oct. 21.—The British lost 44 killed in yesterday's battle, including ten officers. The total number wounded was 173, including 22 officers. The Dublin fusiliers lost fourteen killed and thirty wounded. The King's rifles had eleven killed and 56 wounded.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 21.—The members of the Habsburg delegation here say the Glenoe defeat sustained by their forces was due to defective artillery. The Boers claim they made a gallant fight with the standing regiments of Great Britain for eight hours. They add the battle of Glenoe will prove another Bunker Hill.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—It is rumored in official circles that Gen. Sykes, who was wounded in yesterday's battle at Glenoe, is dead.

ON THE RUN

Goebelites Badly Scared Up—Everybody Working.

The Woods Are Full of Them and They Are Working Like Beavers.

The flight of the Goebelites becomes more and more pronounced every day, as the time for election draws near. All over the state every available speaker is out stamping the counters for the Music Hall candidates. As Sam Jones said, "Every body who can kick, bite or butt is out kicking, biting and butting." In McGehee county it is the same.

This morning Col. Tom Conner and Attorney Jesse Gilbert went out to Lamey to speak, and Col. Ed Leigh, Congressman Wheeler, Joe Potter and L. K. Taylor went out to Raghorn and Grahamville to speak this afternoon and evening.

Ex-Congressman John K. Hendrik, who was ostracized a year or two ago from the same party for which he is now working, went up to Lyon county to speak.

It is noted that the Goebelites are very glad to get even the hated "gold bugs" back into the fold, although they openly threat that the infamous "gold bugs" need expect nothing but to be allowed to vote for them. They are regarded as renegades who may leave the ranks from the table, but nothing else. There is no amount of pence they can do that will ever entitle them to hold office again as Democrats. Yet the gold bugs are not helping Hendrik, perhaps because Hendrik himself has been, if he is not now, a "gold bug."

The bitter attitude the Goebelites have assumed towards the Brown men and their desperate war for their ticket, shows that they are badly frightened, despite their boastful claims.

Give us a call.

Generally fair and warm tomorrow.

FOR PERJURY.

Jeff Walker Arrested on This Charge.

Jeff Walker, colored, was arrested today on a charge of false swearing in the police court. He had it man named Chas. White arrested this week for using insulting language towards him, and his testimony in the police court is alleged not to have been in strict accordance with the truth.

A warrant was issued against him by Justice Winchester and he was arrested this morning in that court, but the case was continued until Tuesday morning.

STONE SPEAKS

Capture of Bryan by Goebel a Loss to Both.

Western Kentucky Remains Unchanged—Blackburn's Appeal.

Captain W. J. Stone was in Louisville a few days since. He talked about the state canvas and his treatment of Bryan by Goebel, saying: "My observations in Western Kentucky is that Mr. Bryan's trip has had no material effect, except in some instances, on men who were for him for president before he came. I have heard declare themselves against him since he came, solely, however, on the grounds of his indecision of conduct and his methods. As far as I am concerned, I am for Bryan. Knowing the treachery of the gang that had him in hand, I know he has been deceived as to what has occurred during the Mingo hall convention. I know Mr. Bryan too well to believe he would endorse treachery, robbery and fraud to gain political ascendancy."

"Mr. Bryan has been regarded as the true and untrammeled leader of the common people and the exponent of pure Democracy, but, in the present instance, by the somewhats of deception and misrepresentation that has characterized the gang that had him in charge during his present tour of Kentucky, he has been deceived."

I have received a personal letter from Senator Blackburn in which he appeals to me in the strongest terms to go actively to work to secure the election of the Mingo hall ticket, of which he virtually admits the integrity of the flooded election law, and that in the hands of any party it can be used to rob the people of their liberties for at least a quarter of a century. The tone of his letter indicates that he feels his election to the United States Senate is the paramount object of the campaign that is being waged. Being familiar with facts as Senator Blackburn is, I am surprised that a man who knows us as well as Senator Blackburn does, could have the audacity to ask me to actively or in any other way support the head of the ticket of the Mingo hall convention. Had Mr. Goebel and his friends been willing to show me fair quarter after he had been nominated, I might have been willing to have passed the treacherous resolution toward me in that convention, notwithstanding history. But not satisfied with having violated the most solemn oaths voluntarily made, thus so easily accomplishing my defeat, when victory was within my grasp, they shall do it again with seeming determination to destroy my reputation for truth and a victory."

"They persistently assed me immediately after the nomination had been made, that the agreement between Mr. Goebel and myself on June 24, at the convention hall, had never existed, and that his pledge made to me on Saturday, June 24, was never made, thus endeavoring to put me in the position of having lied to my wife and children and to my dearest friends and to the public at large about the most important event in my political and private life. My Democracy is of the purest type, as shown in our faithful service to my party during my entire life, but to secure the election of Mr. Blackburn to the United States Senate, or any other man to any position, I cannot be driven to support any man by the support of whom I would be testifying to the truth of their statements and to the falsity of my own."

DROUGHT BROKEN.
Resumption of Navigation on the Cumberland.

KETTAWA, Ky., Oct. 20.—Heavy rains have fallen in this section, and the drought, which has existed since last summer, is broken. River and timberline much damaged over the prospects of a good rise in both rivers, as heavy rains are reported from all points above. A large amount of timber and logs is ready to go out on the first ice.

The Cumberland river is lower than for years, and navigation has been entirely suspended since early in July last.

Considerable sickness, which the physicians claim is due to the long continued dry spell, prevailing in this section. During the past ten days four deaths among young people have occurred, the persons having each been ill less than three days. Death in each case resulted from congestive colds.

Cattle thieves are giving farmers in this county much trouble, and all efforts to capture the guilty parties have been unsuccessful. In some instances cattle have been butchered in the field and the best portions of the meat carried away.

Adjutant Jim Parker, of Camp Pitton, announces that the Confederate re-union on Reelfoot Lake, will commence next Monday, the 23d and continue one week. Messes have been formed at Fulton, Mayfield, Clinton, Columbus and other points.

LARGEST WOMAN.
Death of Mrs. Little Park Last Night at Wiley, Ky.

Mrs. Little Park, aged 40, and said to be the largest woman in the First Congressional district, died last night from heart trouble at her home at Wiley, Marshall County.

She was ill but a short time. She weighed nearly 400 pounds. The deceased was a member of the First Baptist church, and the funeral will take place this afternoon, the burial being at the family graveyard. The deceased leaves a husband and several children.

SOME BOOK CHAT.

AN ENGLISH VIEW OF "DAVID HARMON."

Comparatively little popular interest has been as yet shown in England for either "David Harmon" or "Rich and Curvel," but the English critics are not blind to their merits. The London Academy gives the leading place in its issue of September 16, to a review of the former book, with portrait of the author, and says of it: "If David Harmon contains any surprise, it is not that the public should be so easily pleased, but that an amateur of letters should be able to produce such good work, and that such good work should be so widely appreciated. Noyes Weston may have been an ordinary person, seeing what he saw with every day eye; he may have been needless of the subtler manifestations of beauty; he may not have discovered with pleasure that words have souls, or with pleasure that sentiment is the devil. David Harmon remains David Harmon, will probably remain for some time a convincing and delightful creation, and, in the sense that it sticks in the memory, a delight full one."

After a lengthy description of the story, the reviewer adds:

"Novels which excite America seldom or never meet with anything but indifference here. The reason usually is either that they are limited, or that words have souls, or with pleasure that sentiment is the devil. David Harmon remains David Harmon, will probably remain for some time a convincing and delightful creation, and, in the sense that it sticks in the memory, a delight full one."

The number of cases on the circuit docket is said to be unnecessarily large. There are on the docket, it is claimed, scores of damage suits that ought to have been thrown out. The latter plan, of course, is feasible, until the cases come up, but it is said further that two-thirds of the damage suits filed will not stick a moment.

"Suits are brought on the most trivial pretexts," one lawyer said. "Some of them are perfectly ridiculous. They are too timid to merit the serious consideration of a court for a moment. They are filed, not nothing else remains to be done but drag along with them until they are worn out or thrown out."

The case of young Tom Freeman, of Christian county, should be a warning to all young men with detective ambitions. Young Freeman lived in a settlement where he was doubtless considered "some pumpkin" by virtue of the exalted position he held. This position was that of a permanent, permanent, detective, by virtue of the authority of some cheap detective agency that had about as much right to confer such authority as Agassiz had to appoint W. J. Bryan president of the United States. The young man enjoyed quite a good deal of distinction, however, in his home town, and his papers, coyly adorned with red seals and ribbons and which cost only $5, were a source of no little envy among his acquaintances. When he came to Paducah, alas! he was checked into jail.

These cheap detective agencies are all friends and the sooner all young men learn it, the better. No one in the state of Kentucky has a right to give anyone else the right to carry arms concealed or make arrests, unless he is an officer and not out of his jurisdiction.

This privilege may be indirectly conferred by appointing a personal special police officer, deputy sheriff, or some other officer who has a legal right to carry a pistol, but the mere right to do it cannot be conferred on anyone by anyone.

It is a young man's desire to become detective, they can do detective work without being appointed, or without carrying a pistol. A detective has no right to carry arms concealed or make arrests, unless he is an officer and not out of his jurisdiction.

Old river men give it as their opinion that it will be the latter part of next month before the river rises sufficiently to restore navigation to its former proportions. It will be about this time before the big Cincinnati and New Orleans boats can run again.

They have been laid up for many weeks, and at this time, of course, all of their officers who could not obtain positions on other or smaller boats, have been idle. After next month, the river men will enjoy their trade until the spring or summer.

CHILD ADOPTED.

Good Words Spoken for the Home of the Friendless.

On Tuesday, the second day of court, Judge Ben O. Jones and wife received their family by adopting, in open court, little Etta Hall, a bright three year-old girl that they procured from the Home of the Friendless, Paducah, Ky., says the Metropolis Journalistic publication. We have seen this little girl in charge of Mrs. Judge Jones, on public occasions, and the picture presented was a most pleasing one of motherly affection on the part of Mrs. Jones, and childish trust and affection on the part of the child.

The little lady has found a home where she will be given every opportunity to grow into one of God's best gifts to man—a pure, noble woman. We congratulate the adopted parents, we rejoice with the child. Surely we must forget the Home of the Friendless, of which Mrs. Judge Campbell, of Paducah, is president; for it was through them that this child has found such a good home and pleasant home again in Brooklyn.

TO EASE THE FEET.

If you are troubled with sore soles, do not fail to try the following treatment. Soak the feet well at night in hot water, in which has been dissolved a few crystals of potassium nitrate. Then dry carefully, especially between the toes, and dash the skin in these parts freely with a mixture of tannic acid and borax acid. Next morning wash carefully with pure soft soap and cold water, thoroughly dry, mud powder with no raceme.

A piece of lemon on a split raisin bound on a hard corn will very often cure it. The first application may produce soreness, but if treatment is persisted in for a reasonable length of time, a cure will likely be effected, if not, try the following preparation.

Thirty grains of salicylic acid and five grains of Indian hemp, to be dissolved in half an ounce of oil.

For tired and tender feet, nothing is better than to bathe the feet and legs from five to eight minutes in hot water in which has been dissolved a handful of good sea salt. Rub briskly with coarse towel and apply slices of lemon to the soles of the feet.

A sure cure for broken children is the following. Take a quarter of a pint of oil of sweet almonds, one ounce of Venetian turpentine, three ounces of lanolin and one ounce of beeswax and mix well. Put all together in a white wax pot and then put outside to cool, stirring occasionally to prevent the preparation from becoming too hard. Spread this ointment on feet, but keep the children covered with it at night, and as much of the day as is practicable.

Association Brief Furnishes Some New Information.

The association has a committee for visiting the sick, and would be glad to have reported any case where young men are sick, especially where friends are needed. This work is not confined to members alone, but all young men are included.

Supervising Inspector General Department, in his annual report, comments on the fact that natives were lost on the excursion steamer in the United States on the Fourth of July, of 1861. It was estimated that one thousand more persons patronized the steamer this year than ever before.

The Association Brief purposes to reach its readers through the mails. Application has already been made to enter it as second-class matter.

Physical Instructor Potter has been in the sick list for a week past, and was forced to miss two classes last week. He is O. K. now, and will be on hand Saturday night, as well as glass evenings following. The men who have entered the classes this year are more than pleased and already testify to the benefits of the gymnasium. Now, the Junior department is growing. Gymnasium classes every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon. In connection with the gymnasium work arrangement has been made to make regular physical examinations. This will help very much, in that it will enable the men to know best how much and what kind of exercise each needs. Mr. Potter will conduct the measurements.

The new books have arrived, and the library members compliment them highly. You read the best books at the lowest cost by buying a member.

An effort is being made to have a course of practical links as a feature of the fall and winter work.

Beginning with the first Sunday in November some very fine addresses will be given on Sunday afternoons.

A program of up-to-date subjects is being made up and the best speakers in the city will have a part. Help these men's meetings to grow.

AN AMERICAN CANAL.

The syndicate represented by Eyre and Cranch last year secured a revised version of the rights of the American Canal company. The concession was voted by the Nicaraguan canal commission on the last day that body had a legal existence. Those who understand the condition of affairs relating to the Nicaraguan canal know that American ownership of the enterprise was in jeopardy until this contract was approved. The granting of the concessions to Eyre and Cranch by the Nicaraguan government to secure all rights of the American company, thus shutting out forever the possibility of foreign expansion of the enterprise.
